Purpose

Getting married can be one of the most rewarding decisions you will ever make. But strong marriages require more than love and romance - they require the knowledge and tools to deal with the challenges married life brings. Marrying Well provides you with a unique opportunity to build a strong foundation for your marriage by covering key topics including conflict resolution, communications, family history, sexuality, finances and spirituality.

Facilitators

Marrying Well facilitating couples are passionate advocates for healthy marriages, come from diverse educational and career backgrounds, are PREPARE/ENRICH certified, and hold to a common understanding of how emotionally secure connections are essential for resilient adult love relationships. Their warm and compassionate style will quickly help you feel at ease and ready to learn about yourself and your relationship.

"Marrying Well gave us a chance to discuss issues that were hard to bring up. Now we have the tools to communicate better."

Setting

Marrying Well seminars are conducted in a relaxed and informal atmosphere, giving couples the freedom to participate as they are comfortable. While there is opportunity to connect with and gain perspective from other couples in your group, most discussion happens privately between you and your partner. This is your weekend, your time, and your chance to create a solid foundation for your relationship.

Whether you have lived together for a long time or are about to begin, we welcome you to our marriage preparation seminar and look forward to helping you achieve your relationship goals.

Love is patient and kind; love is not jealous or boastful; it is not arrogant or rude; love does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrong, but rejoices in the right.

1 Corinthians 13:4-6
